About us

Ruchika, an architect by profession, discovered her interest during a chocolate making hobby session in 2009. Soon after, her husband Dinesh, a Chartered Accountant, recognized the business potential and offered his expertise in managing the operational and expansion aspects of the company. Major organizations took notice of their unique 'Concept Gifting ideas' and a whole new universe of opportunities opened up!

'RUCHOKS' has built a strong market presence in 15 years, raising people's expectations. The company's portfolio expanded in 2020, to incorporate 'DIBHA', an honest snacking & beverage brand into BrownWall Food Products Private Limited. The company has successfully brought exclusive products to the high street and making them accessible to a wide range of customers.
